The papers hint at sensational developments if the facts are made known.

PROF. KENDALL RETIRES AS DEAN OF YALE ART SCHOOL

Kendall.

Washington, March 12. - The senate Leuroot, Kellogg and others inslated that and ascreed that rejection of the four-power plan would jeapardize the whole programme of the arms onnference. During the two sessions today and to-night a new batch of proposed reserva-tions were added to the half dozen already pending. They included one by Senator Walsh, of Montana, for partici-pation of outside powers in Pacific conferences affecting their interests. Sena-tor LaFoliette, submitted six providing among other things that any signatory might terminate the treaty on one year's notice, that there should be no separate agreements among any of the four powers prejudical to the purposes of the treaty, that the Angio-Japanese alliance treaty, that the Angio-Japanese alliance should not be renewed during the life of the treaty and that the independence of the Philippines, when attained, anould be respected by all the signatories.

An outburst of handelapping, the first of the treaty debate, swept the senate galleries when Semator Reed concluded a framatic denunciation of the part at the evening session with a peroration asking that his country continue in the pathwamarked out by the fathers. Unders tried in vain to stop the demonstration is violation of the rule prohibiting applicates, but it continued unchecked for nearly a minute.

The "irresistable logis" of the four-news tracts.

power treaty, Senator Reed declared at he concluded his speech, would be to drive Russia and Germany together for

"And when that force striken," he said.
"It will strike with a crushing force It will strike France and Great Britain, and the United States will be bound to them. Then you, who to gain a political advantage support this treaty, may redeem this treaty. deem this treaty with the blood of your changes. A recent speech by Trotzky sons and the tears of your daughters, serving notice that the new interpreta-tion group should not forget the Bed compact turn their coats betray their country, but as for me I shall continue to stund for the doctrines of Washing-on, which outlive the policies and quiboling of all the political tricksters of all until noon tomorrow, the day's debate had covered more than nine hours. Under the unanimous consent agreement, deed the unanimous consent agreement, voltag on the pending reservations, without debate, is to begin as soon as tomorrow's session begins.
